

Arbitration Award | Reasoned

For the appointed arbitrator when a reasoned award is required or agreed. Use identified attachments for the complete analysis; the template does not enlarge the neutral's authority or supply the decision.

1. Matter and authority

Claimant(s) and respondent(s) / complete caption

Case number / arbitrator / place of arbitration

Governing agreement / rules / applicable law / source of reasoned award requirement

2. Procedural background

Appointment / disclosures / notice / appearances / hearing and briefing / record closure

Claims, defenses, counterclaims, and issues submitted

3. Findings and analysis

Set out the findings or determinations and reasons necessary under the governing agreement and law. Connect each material conclusion to the record and the applicable authority. Clearly identify any attached analysis and resolve all submitted questions necessary to determine the controversy.

Material factual findings or determinations / identified attached findings

Legal and contractual analysis / reasons / identified attached analysis

4. Award and relief

Specific relief granted or denied, parties responsible, amounts, dates, and conditions

Interest: authority / rate / calculation / accrual dates

Attorney fees, costs, and arbitration charges: authority / amounts / allocation

5. Scope, issuance, and service

Finality or authorized interim status / reserved matters / incorporated attachments

The award's scope and form remain limited by the governing authority. Judicial review and correction rights remain as provided by applicable law. An administrative template does not make an award automatically enforceable or immune from review.

Signature(s) of all concurring arbitrators / date and place of issuance; attach a signature schedule if needed

Service date / lawful method / recipients and addresses / person effecting service

Authorities and scope

California Code of Civil Procedure § 1283.4

California Code of Civil Procedure § 1283.6

California Code of Civil Procedure § 1284

California Code of Civil Procedure § 1286.2